BIOGRAPHY:

Classic Beauty, Soul, Dedication, and an Amazing 5 Octave Voice is what describes the New York born Singer / Songwriter / Actress, Linda Kiraly. Born from Hungarian parents and both musicians, it was obvious that Linda would follow suit and catch the music bug as well. As the 1st born child, her father raised her more as his 1st son than his 1st daughter. As she traveled around the Bronx, NY with him, she was influenced by the sounds of the city and began studying multiple genres of music from Soul to Classical and ultimately was honored to perform at the prestigious Carnegie Hall at the age of 13. Three years later, with her dreams in site she is suddenly uprooted as her family is forced to relocate back to Hungary after her mother is diagnosed with ovarian cancer. For the next year while helping her mother recuperate back to health, dealing with complete culture shock, and a language barrier, Kiraly falls back on what has comforted her so much while she was in the states...her music.

She enrolled in Hungary's equivalent of Julliard, "Bartok Bela" Music Academy and landed the title song for a major motion picture, "Szerelm Utolso Verig" translated "Love Til The Last Drop Of Blood". This established Kiraly as an instant star in Hungary and was only multiplied when soon after she wrote and recorded the theme song for the "Big Brother" TV Show (triple platinum sold), and she is hand picked by the legendary Andrew Lloyd Webber to play the lead role of Christine in "The Phantom Of The Opera". Add in the theme songs to Disney's "Home On The Range" Animated Blockbuster and "S.O.S. Love" Starring: Billy Zane and Daryl Hannah. A slew of Magazine Covers were soon to follow including FHM, STYLE, COSMO, ELLE and more as well as being the face of Samsung and Schwarzkopf Blondme.

After the release of her Debut Album, "#1" (King Music / Warner Bros) her accolades have been numerous to say the least:

- Signed and Recorded with Production / Songwriting Team: Foster & McElroy (EnVogue, Tony Toni Tone)
- Recorded with Multi-Platinum Producer / Artist / Dj: Mousse T and Songwriter: Errol Reid (Peppermint Studios in Hannover, Germany)
- Recorded with Platinum Producer: Livingston Brown (London)
- Heard by Record Executives Monte Lipman and Doug Morris (Universal/Republic) and after flying her back to the states, she was signed on the spot.
- After signing, Recorded with Multi-Platinum Producers/Songwriters: Walter Afanasieff, Ryan Leslie, Shannon & Drew, Jimmy Jam & Terry Lewis, and Rodney Jerkins who produced her debut single, "Can't Let Go" which hit #1 and has over 3million+ youtube views.
- Released 2012 single "Untried" featuring Pras Michel and RH3 (reached #1 on radio charts)
- Wrote & Recorded "Solo" and "Move Faster" singles that also hit #1 with her brother Viktor Kiraly.
- Duet with Eric Benet on his Grammy Nominated "Love & Life" Album.
- Recorded Hungary's National Olympic Theme Song.
- Participated in Hungary's "Eurovision" Competition with her Identical Twin Brothers Ben & Viktor Kiraly.
- Currently working with Pras Michel (of the Fugees) and Roy Hamilton III.

"Her ability to translate her emotions and the story of her life into soaring melody and powerful, heartfelt vocals is a testament to what makes her music and her voice so unique and timeless to date".

▶ Newcomer Linda Kiraly may have Rodney Jerkins in her back pocket on debut single “Can’t Let Go,” but the 24-year-old already brings a world of experience to her upcoming 2008 debut. Born in the Bronx, her musical parents emigrated from Hungary, leading Kiraly to a career singing in classical style in their native language that carried her across Europe as a teen. With an itch to sing contemporary English, her signing with Universal Republic now primes her for stateside flight. The beatbox-buxom “Can’t Let Go,” about a toxic relationship, conjures Natasha Bedingfield with its pure soul/pop template and a hook big enough to catch a mountain bass. An auspicious debut from an artist with the physical charms to foster a serious crush or two along the way.—CT
